Working in a Legal Firm in the 21st Century can feel like being lost in a maze, with no clear direction of what to do or where to go.

This training course examines the elements for managing and working in a successful, modern legal firm.

It includes:

- The Business Plan – key strategic document or regulatory requirement?
- How to identify issues and the key things you or the firm should work on
- How to implement or operationalize decisions from the strategy
- Profitability versus turnover
- How the firm can work efficiently, particularly in the current market climate
- Understanding client value
- Client care and the “Domino Effect”

Who should attend?

Management Training for:

- Department Heads
- New Directors or Partners
- Director/Partner Designates
