

CPM21: LEGAL AID SUPERVISORS AND THE NEW 2024 CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS ARE YOU READY?

This course satisfies Section 2 - Generic Requirements of the LAA Supervisor Declaration Form for all Legal Aid Categories of Law, both Civil and Crime

What's new and why this is an Essential Course

For some years the LAA has not substantially changed the terms of the Civil & Crime Legal Aid Contracts. Also the SQM and LEXCEL have remained static – until now!

That has now all changed and the LAA, the Law Society and indeed the SRA have each made or are about to make changes that will impact on the Supervisory Requirements. It has all been done in a rather ad hoc and confusing way.

This course will help you to understand and navigate the changes so that you can comply with the new LAA requirements and avoid losing your legal aid contract(s).

Schedule

How to fulfil the role of a Legal Aid Supervisor

Whether you are new to the Supervisor role or need to bring your knowledge up to date, then this is a vital course – and in some cases a MANDATORY course for you.

It will explain what evidence you need to have in place to demonstrate effective supervision. Template forms will be provided to help you achieve this.

Course Tutor

Wayne Williams LLB, MBA

is a former senior manager and auditor at the Legal Aid Agency. He has extensive experience of helping firms in England and Wales comply with LEXCEL, SQM and LAA contract requirements.
